

SENTENCE STRUCTURE DRILL

Directions: For the following sentences and fragments, put a check mark next to each complete sentence. If the sentence is not complete, make it complete by adding or removing punctuation, removing a transition word, or changing the main verb.

1. In 2018, writer and professor Carol Anderson, published her fourth book.
2. Starting in childhood, the siblings, born in the city of Toronto, who studied the art of origami.
3. Not knowing which aisle contained beans, Cade wandered around the store.
4. Since the books are due on the tenth, two weeks from today.
5. With a bang, the bright fireworks, launched from the pier, and exploded colorfully in the dark sky.
6. My ankle starting to hurt after I twisted it during volleyball practice.
7. According to the guidebook, grizzly bears, when they are seen in the wild, are best left alone.
8. As Jaylee's phone beeped over and over, so she had to set it to silent.
9. Learning a foreign language requires practice in that language: immersion in a group speaking the language, when possible, is the best method.
10. Singing for a large audience, scared Jackson.