

interviewing a day care provider

Going the day care route? You will want to ask these important questions.

How many babies are there per caregiver?

What education and experience do caregivers have?

Are all of your caregivers background checked? Infant and child CPR certified?

How do you handle security? Are the doors locked?

What is your policy on illness? When is it not okay for baby to come?

How often and with what products are toys cleaned?